False negative lymph node staging
Applies only to Manual Palpation (not LNL300)

Manual palpation, even with the best yield possible, cannot match the Lymph Node Locator's false negative rate of zero. Manual Palpation is incapable of detecting the clinically important small lymph nodes.

Use the link below to compute a colorectal cancer false negative rate. Add any real or hypothetical lymph node total from manual palpation.

[False Negative Calculator]